Specifications on file at the office of the Road Engineer.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Work to be finished by Oct. 15th 1914.

C. C. FITTRO, County Road Engineer.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
Notice is hereby given that Joe Devono now serving a sentence in the West Virginia Penitentiary, will apply on or after May 20, 1914 to the Board of Parole for a recommendation to the Governor for parole.

M. L. BROWN, Warden.

SALEM, May 15—This city and community have been shocked and saddened by many tragic accidents and deaths of well known people.

A large funeral procession followed the body of Israel Bailey from residence to the cemetery. The Revs. Messrs. Blackley and Wooster officiated at the home and the Woodmen of the World at the Grave. He was a prominent business man here and had just recently disposed of his hardware business and moved to a farm, and met his death by being thrown from a horse.

Mrs. Ada Reynolds, wife of J. F. Reynolds, died Wednesday from illness resulting from child birth. The funeral was held today from the Baptist church.

Sunday will be anniversary day and the Rev. George W. Kemper, field secretary for the permanent fund for the conference, will preach at both services. At the Baptist church, the Rev. Homer D. Pease, of Athens, Pa., will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening.

Salem is to have an innovation in a ladies' band, and they will give their first public appearance and performance May 28. They will have a variety of instruments and something unusual, novel and unique.
